

Sonata Arctica, I Have A Right

Give me the right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free to be
Everything I need, to be me, to be safe, to believe, in something
I have a right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free to be
Everything I need, to be me, to be safe, to believe, in something

Father there's a little flower, beautiful and different, all alone, all alone
Is it so dad, I'm not supposed to make the world anew and be like you.
I'm not you...

Give me the gift to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be
Everything I need, to be me, to be safe, to believe, in something
I have a right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to have
Everything I need, to be me, to be safe, to believe, in something

Right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be mean
I have a right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be Everything I need, to be me to said to believe, in something
Right to be hurt, to be seen, to be loved, to be mean

You made it clear right from the start, I am to take your sour heart
Within, one sad game
But I will never teach my son, in bitter history, to tired and true, cause
I'm not you

I have a right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be
Everything I need, to be me, to be safe, to believe, in something
I have a right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be
Everything I need, to be me, to be safe, to believe, in something

Give me the eys, so I see in the air, so I hear, give me love so I know what Love is, give me the freedom to think, to believe, in something
I have a right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be Everything I need, to be mean, to safe, to believe, in something

So give me the gift, to hear, to see, the love, the freedom, the truth, the Things I feel, to be right for the world you leave me, in something
Give me the right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be
Everything I need, to be me, to be safe, to believe, in something
I have a right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be
Everything I need, to be me, to be safe, to believe, in something
Give me the right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be
Everything I need, to be me, to be safe, to believe, in something

Right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be everything I
Need
Right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be everything I
Need
Right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be everything I
Need
Right to be heard, to be seen, to be loved, to be free, to be everything I
Need
To be heard
