

Sonic Lake, There Is A Way

How come we never talk, 'bout us and going on
To scared to ask if we'll last
Maybe there's something more that makes me stay with You
Maybe I'm giving You less

You come, You go, sometimes You stay
I see and know, but anyway
It's never easy to decide if You are ready for love ref.

Do I have to live without You maybe there's something I can't give
Do I have to live without You maybe there is a way
You can't ignore a feeling You don't know Cause it could be love and You don't want to be alone

I don't know where to go looking through my window
To scared to ask if we'll last
The world is spinning around and I'm still loosing ground
Maybe I'm giving You less

You come, You go, sometimes You stay
I see and know, but anyway
It's never easy to decide if You are ready for love
