

Sonic Syndicate, Blue Eyed Fiend

Please kill me in my sleep so I get stuck in my dreams
I'll keep exhaling the rime of my chaotic harmony
But the wrecked parts of that ship keep floating in
So I see, this time was never made for me...

Never wanted you to know what was inside of me
And all the things I ever wanted was things I had before

(Chorus)
Making my way to heaven
Through a thousand miles of hell
And your absence bought me time
To break from my mind

Every time I slept with you I made sure that there was no
Ice pick hidden in the sheets of the bed
But my feelings for you are wearing out
It's a strife, still you're the sundown of my life

Never wanted you to know what was inside of me
And all the things I ever wanted was things I had before

(Chorus)

Everything is lost
Everything is gone
The shadows from the past
Is watching over me
Consuming me

(Chorus x2)
