

Sonic Youth, Cinderella's Big Score (Live)

If I could give you anything, I would give you a kick.
You'd rather have a dollar than a hug from your sis.
You've really fucked up this time, your old lady's really pissed.
She's not just laughin', she's polishing her fist.

If you could give me anything, would you consider this?
Don't give me your soul, it's caught in the abyss.
Here's a pack of ciggies, fresh from the wonderless.
A dream is a wish your heart desires, Cinderella is kiss.

The cold is gonna take you and freeze away your tears.
Come a little closer, honey, and we can be so near.

I'd like to crawl inside you, but you got no sense of time.
I'd like to die inside you, but I'm scared I'm gonna cry.

If I could give you anything, I would give you a kick.
You'd rather have a dollar than a hug from your sis.
The cold is gonna take you and freeze away your tears.
Come a little closer, honey, we can be so near.
