

Sonic Youth, That's All I Know

[thurston]

My nerves are buzzing and my heart is god
I think ... but I might be wrong
This goes to to the attic and buzz on the wall
But it's all right I don't care at all
'cause I'm yours and you're mine and that's
And that's all I know right now
That's all
That's all
I know, right now

It's dark outside except for pinpoint light
... lost in a fight
... picking up from the street
I'll stop over once and lay it at your feet
'cause I'm yours and you're mine
That's all I know right now
That's all
That's all
I know, right now

Oh, baby it's dark out there
But oh, baby it's dark in here
Oh, darling I don't care no no

My tv's up against the wall like a painting
... abstaining
But I myself had a thought for my lips
It's delicious lady won't you have a sip
'cause I'm yours and you're mine
And that's all I know right now
That's all
That's all
I know, right now

'cause I'm yours and you're mine
And that's all I know right now
That's all
That's all
I know, right now
