Sonic Youth, What We Know

I'm in a state of shock I'm creeping up and down your block I'm looking into you I'm trying to catch your view It's not a quiet meditation Oh, that we know Darkness makes the night more cold That's what we know about me Satisfied wise child Creeping heart and frozen perfection You can touch my hand I drink a case of you Heaven's not about your reputation Yeah that we know Forever means the night turns gold That's what we know about you It's been quite a ride With you my sweet, here by my side Funny how the mountains slide We're stepping across the great divide Our bodies vibrate slowly anekatips.com Yeah, that we know Bound to give it heart and soul That's what we know about us
