SONICFLOOd, Prodigal

Lord you see into my heart There is no place I can hide When I feel I've been apart From You, from You

Broken I bow at your feet Surrendering all that I am Lord I know that I am complete In You, only You

So here is my life I give it all I'm placing it in Your hands Mold me and make me Let me fall into Your arms of love again Where I should have always been

My sin You remember no more Your mercy has covered my scars Your healing has welcomed me home I am new in You
