

SonsOfDay, Try To Forget

I try to forget
Every time I fall, it's in my head
But I know I'm better than this mess
I cannot see beyond myself
I try to remind
Trying to remind myself it's time
I'm not gonna fall away from You
Fall away from You this time
I try to forget
Trying so hard, but it's in my head
The day that everything just went so wrong
I can see the sun shining from here
It's the sunrise
The starting of a new day
The starting of a new me
And I can fall sometimes
But I'll get up every time I'm down
I'm not gonna fall now for your lies
Walking down this broken road twice
So I try to rethink
Trying to contain my self inside
I'm gonna figure out this mess I've made
Try to see beyond myself
I try to forget
Trying so hard, but it's in my head
The day that everything just went so wrong
I can see the sun shining from here
It's the sunrise (sunrise)
The starting of a new day (sunrise)
The starting of a new me
When I feel down, I feel small
I keep breaking on down
Time changes people
Turns everything around
Yeah, I try to forget
Trying so hard, but it's in my head
The day that everything just went so wrong
I can see the sun shining from here
It's the sunrise (sunrise)
The starting of a new day (sunrise)
The starting of a new me
The starting of a new life
