

Sophia, Holidays Are Nice

Holidays are nice
Holidays are fun
Holidays are wonderful
If you're the one
That's leaving on an airplane
Sitting on a train or just wasting time
Watching the clouds take shape

And God I wish that I was running
Somewhere with you today

Everything's lovely
Yeah everything's fine
I've got more than I need most of the time
But still something seems missing
Like there's a crack inside
If we could just get away
And leave what divides us behind
