

Sophie Zelmani, Breeze

My heart is leaving you
it says goodbye
Disappering from you tonight
Not a breeze is gonna pass you by
There are sailingboats
There are shops
Broken rafts adrift I'm jumping on what ever's passing by I've blown tha candle out that you forgot I've made sure that the door is shut
I don't think you're ever coming back
My heart is leaving you
It's says goodbye
Disappering from you tonight
Not a breeze is gonna
pass you by
