

Sophie Zelmani, How It Feels

We are getting there darling
This is you and me
Have you thought about it darling
Have you thought about how it feels
I think we've got some answers
Just looking at you now
This is not what happens when a love is about to die
The rumour you're hearing is coming straight from me
It's a rumour to rely on
This is how it feels
We're in the middle of it darling
It just occurred to me
I haven't thought about it darling
How it really feels
