

Sophie Zelmani, So long (Aranjuez version)

I've had my eyes
I've had my ears to steal from you for so long
For a sake to fill a hole that kills You've made me thrill
I've been wondering, so long
So long, so long
Now I burn
and when I yearn
every while without you
is too long
Now I'm free
You made me see
It had to be, so long Because I'm gonna love you, so long
So long, so long
Now I burn
and when I yearn
every while without you
is too long
Now I'm free
You made me see
It had to be, so long
I've been wondering, so long
I've been wondering, so long
I've been wondering, so long
I've been wondering, so long
So long, so long, so long
