

Soraya, I'm Yours

Once I found a love I thought was real twice I thought I'd know how it would feel thrice I locked my heart in walls of steel now with you it's time to break the seal It's in the way you look at me it's in the way you smile at me in the way you say my name.

I fall apart each time
each time you say you're mine
I'm yours I'm yours.

The first time I had to run away the second I knew I could not stay the third time felt like any other day now with you there's no time for delay

I fall apart each time
each time you say you're mine
I'm yours I'm yours.

It's in the way you look at me
it's in the way you smile at me
in the way you say my name.

I fall apart each time
each time you say you're mine
I'm yours I'm yours.
