

Soulrelic, Still Breathing

Where am I and who are you?
Its like I woke up in a different world
I can only remember what you said to me
This feeling is so divine
Strange thoughts circling around my head
Im like a fragile leaf blown by wind
After all of this is gone
Im still breathing
Will this ever end?
Im still breathing
Please make me stop
Im still breathing
Im still breathing
I saw a dream and you were there
I felt so cold and felt so blue
The light of the candle makes me colder
Reminds me of warmth I coul have
Im still lying here alone
Wishing you where here
After all of this is gone
Im still breathing
Will this ever end?
Im still breathing
Please make me stop now
Im still breathing
Im breaking through I am still breathing
Am I dead?
Is this heaven or is this hell?
It doesnt really matter
As long as you are here
After all of this is gone
Im still breathing
Will this ever end?
Im still breathing
Please make me stop
Im still breathing
Im breaking through I am still breathing
