

Soulwax, Ballad To Forget

You're honest
Even when you lie
Well i wish you were closer then near
I must be blind

'Cause you didn't intent to lie
You just nearly got it all wrong

'Cause i must remember to forget you
And i must remember you can't seem to..

You're honest
Even when you lie
And in all of the kitchens in the world full of broken arms
'Cause it doesn't happen when you're asleep
To the unspoken question i say : Here you have me

'Cause i must remember to reject you
And i must rembember you do can't seem to..
'Cause i must remember to forget you
And i must remember you don't seem to..
