

Soulwax, Krack

When I believe it's time.
The great escape comes yet.
Come, come on clear minds,
You turn it upside down,
The stopwatch prophecy.

You try to take it all back,
Something will make you go krack.

They wanna sell museum,
The sailor moved away,
He's on the dance floor now,
It's all Krack

You try to take it all back,
Something will make you go krack.
I tried nothing at all,
Something will make you go krack.
Five more words to throw back.
You will clear beneath him, now that I'm back.
Too hard to do sympathy
While our sanity is under attack.

It's under a stoming boat.
You wanna sell it all.
They wanna sell museum,
The sailor moved away,
He's on the dance floor now,
It's gone insane.

You try to take it all back,
It's under a stoming boat.

You try to take it all back,
It's under a stoming boat.

AAAAHHHHH!
