Soundgarden, By Crooked Steps

I'm addicted to feeling, Stealing love isn't stealing, Can't you see that I understand your mind?

I'm a walking believer, I'm a ghost and a healer, I'm the shape of the home inside your mind

Not looking for a brighter side, Crooked steps will take me higher, I don't care if you want to cry

I'm a soldier for hire, Killing all you admire, And you live in the cloud but that will change

Not looking for a brighter side, Crooked steps will take me higher, I don't care if you want to cry

Blood raining down, Cuts a deep, deep river, And we're diving

By crooked steps, Right behind you

I'm a walking believer, I'm a ghost and a healer, Can't you see that I understand your mind?

By crooked steps Right behind you
