

South Park, It's A Rockin' World

Well, it's a Rockin' world, make no mistake about it,
It's a Shockin' world, could be what's so great about it,
It's a Rockin' world, there aint nothing fake about it..
Whoh whoh, well welcome to this world bro
Whoh whoh, we're tryin to find an answer
Whoh whoh, we got a surface module and a belly dancer..

On the sidewalk surf..
A boy is trying to show a girl what he is worth,
Both arms in plaster..
But he's still gonna, go right up and ask her..
Why is it barbaric, is it biological?
Why is it kinetic, is it astrophysiological?
It's an epidemic, there's nothing logically Logical
Logical, Logical..

Well, it's a Rockin' world, make no mistake about it,
It's a Shockin' world, could be what's so great about it,
It's a Rockin' world, there aint nothing fake about it..

Now, why do babies cry?

I asked the crow today, but all he did was fly..
And he took the cynic way,
The laws of chaos..
Left us all in disarray.
Now take the bumblebee, a lousy rotten bum..
Not a shred of money, just a lazy buzzing hum
He takes all our honey..
And Now the Garden of Eden has got to pay, that's who.
Well we're back to base..
Can't make no error in tale of this place.
But home we're returning back to base.. base.
Can only notify when, love comes to age..
Doesn't sell the bite when the, in the initial phase,
Let's all go to fight in the, DNA stage..

Well, it's a Rockin' world, make no mistake about it,
It's a Shockin' world, could be what's so great about it,
It's a Rockin' world, there aint nothing fake about it..
