

South Park Mexican, Crazy Lady

[Chorus: repeat 4X]

Everything would be okay

If you wasn't crazy

Why you trying to fade me

Just be a lady

Now when we first met everything was really going cool

I had to catch myself cause I was digging you

At first it seemed, that you were the only one for me

But oh no, your crazy

Now I.m the type of nigga that just likes to keep it real

I likes to keep my mind focused on the real

Instead of you, trying to help me make my dreams come true

You start a mess, between me and my whole crew

[Hook]

Now what type of lady are you supposed to be

I think its best if you stay the hell away from me

Now what type of lady are you supposed to be

I think its best if you stay the fuck away from me

[Chorus: repeat 4X]

Everything would be okay

If you wasn't crazy

Why you trying to fade me

Just be a lady

Ya know I can't be nobody but me that Russell Lee

What make you think you can come around and change me

Your breaking rules, showing up to my house without a call

Your doing dumbshit and you know that ain't gonna work it out

Ya know you ain't even right, ya damn sure ain't lady like

Ya screaming and scratching started fussing trying to start a fight

You really need to be gone, and leave me the hell alone

You acting like a little girl how the fuck you say your grown

Playing on my phone won't say nothing but I know its you

What will it take for you to understand that we are through

[Phone ring twice]

Hello? Hello? & Bitch!

[Chorus: repeat 4X]

Everything would be okay

If you wasn't crazy

Why you trying to fade me

Just be a lady

If only you were a lady and stopped acting so damn shady

You would be the luckiest women if didn't try to fade me

But you do, so the consequences is all on you

So don't get mad when you see me walking with another boo

I gotta go, you had your chance with me but there.s no more

Look at you looking pitiful crying lying on the floor

I wish there was another way that you can change my mind

You say that your sorry but some kind of way I think your lying

Everything would be okay

If you was a lady

Everything would be okay

If you wasn't crazy

[Chorus: repeat 4X]

Everything would be okay

If you wasn't crazy

Why you trying to fade me

Just be a lady

Just be a lady

[Repeat 4x]

[Chorus: repeat 2X]

Everything would be okay

If you wasn't crazy

Just be a lady [echo]
