

South Park, Special In Our Own Way

We're all special in our own way
Everybody's different, but thats okay!
Cos even though we might have different colored skin
Different point of views, be it tall or thin
It doesn't mean I can't lay you down woman..
And touch your silky skin..

Put my love deep in side you where no man has ever been..
Rub your legs, caress your thighs..
and uh.. what were we talking about again?
