

South Park, Wishing Tree

Have you been up my wishing treeeeeeee

It's where i come to think and dream and now i'd like to show you my wishing treeeeeeee where we could laugh and giggle and scream (Heeeee heeee) let your imagination run free won't you imagine along with me we can be space men or pirates on the sea we could do everything and i mean everything up in my wishing treee

HEEEE HEEEEEE OOOOOOOOOOOOO
