Come on, come on Everything's dandy He's got slingshot teeth like a hot bamboo He wakes up every morning at the crack o' two Have you seen him? Well, if you know who I mean there's no need to ask He wears a pinstripe suit and always has the last laugh Have you seen him? I have no face I am anonymous And in my dreams I am anonymous Well, he steals this thyme at the side of the road He's got a one-inch cock but nobody knows Have you seen him? Well, he loves to go a-sailing upon the milky ocean blue We might take a drive in his B-52 Have you seen him? I have no face I am anonymous And in my dreams I am anonymous
