Spacehog, To Be A Millionaire... Was It Likely?

(Antony and Royston Langdon)

He shot his mother down With a gun that he had found He dragged her by the hair And he sat her in a chair

He knew that he was wrong Now all his friends were gone But Terry's only care Was to be a millionaire

At school he played the fool And on linoleum he ruled The other children stared But he would kick and pull their hair

He knew that he was wrong Now all his friends were gone But Terry's only care Was to be a millionaire

Remember Terry's song And your future won't be long You can be happy where you are Or as lonely as a star

You can be happy where you are Or as lonely as a star But Terry's only care Was to be a millionaire.

WAS IT LIKELY? (Antony and Royston Langdon)
