

Spagna, I Wanna Be Your Wife once again "see you darlin' " then you leave me with more than a million doubts i'll brace myself to tell you about about you and me i'll be an ordinary lady but family does mean so much to me deep inside i got a secret wish i i wanna be your wife i i wanna be on your side forever i wanna be your wife why why don't we spend our lives together oh when when you love a man you're happy sharin' joys and pains sometimes love will meet mountains to beat to climb i'll do my best you'll see oh poor me many things to tell you but there's my pride stops the words inside i'll drop you a line i don't wanna see your eyes i chorus

when you read this please don't laugh and then if you need me i'll be by your side till the end
