

Spark, Change

Have you ever sat and watched the world go by
Have you ever wondered what makes time fly
Did you ever wish you could re-live what you've done
Did you ever hear but chose to run

(chorus)

Why do we live like there's a tomorrow
Why don't we live like today is the last
If we knew when Christ was coming again
Would it change our apathy called sin

Man that made people stare as He went by Man that gave of His own to change other's lives
Man that died for the things that you and I have done
His name is Jesus Christ, God's only Son

It's here for you to cherish and to hold
It's light in the dark and warmth in the cold
Tears fall from His eyes when you walk on by
His heart longs for you to have eternal life
