

Spark, Shame

It was an ugly thing to look into my soul
I thought You'd taken everything but You just filled the hole
Give me the thorn, drive it in deep
I'll take the pain cause love ain't cheap

(chorus)
My heart bowed in shame
As I called Your name

You shall always be the one for me

Can't explain the things You've done for me
Keeping me from the fire, Oh precious memories

Farther along I go, take my hand precious Lord
Room at the cross for you, room at the cross for me
