

Sparklehorse, Gold Days

good morning my child
stay with me a while you not got any place to be won't you sit a spell with me you've got diamonds for eyes it's time for you to rise and evaporate
in the sun sometimes it can weigh a ton
keep all your crows away
hold skinny wolves at bay
in silver piles of smiles
may all your days be gold my child a necklace of leaves spirits in the trees and drown all the clocks 'til there's none little ambient in the sun
ha-ah, ha-ah, ha-ah, hah-ahh
and evaporate in the sun sometimes it can weigh a ton
may all your days be gold my child
may all your days be gold my child
