

Sparks The Rescue, Distance From Regret

I've amounted to nothing,
But it's no surprise.
I've been dreaming about missing the sunrise with you.
I dreamt a dream last night,
It was so vivid.
Awoken by my own heart beat,
I've been in a trance ever since.
I've been in a trance.
Dying would be easier than this.
Dying would be easier than this.
Our paths will never cross
And it will never be just fine with me.
I have my faith to keep me breathing.
Hope is all I have.
I could see you there.
I could touch your face.
Being so close has never felt so far.
I will regret this.
Our paths will never cross
And it will never be just fine with me.
I have my faith to keep me breathing.
Hope is all I have.
I could see you there.
I could touch your face.
Being so close has never felt so far.
I will regret this.
We were so close,
But now we've gone so far.
I have never felt more alone.
