

Sparks, The Toughest Girl In Town

(Ron & Russell Mael)

She won't marry you
She don't look good in white
Don't try sweet talk
Unless you're hot for a fight
Still there's something that
Drives the guys half-insane
Ain't they heard that their love
For her is in vain

And all the guys in town
Just love to hang around
The toughest girl in town

Look outside and you'll see
The rain pouring down
That's the sign that
She's now on your side of town
Plan your life around
Someone proper and clean
That's the smart thing
But that means nothing to me

And all the guys in town
Just love to hang around
The toughest girl in town

She's not evil
She's just a little confused
All here life she's been Set upon and abused
Given that, she's more interesting
Than the rest
Given that, she's the one
Who I love the best

And all the guys in town
Just love to hang around
The toughest girl in town
