

Sparta, Cut Your Ribbon

Wake Up
Can You Hear Me?
You're so clever
Did you find me?
In the backroom
In your closet
In your suitcase
There's no running
I will find you
Like the glacier
Cuts the seabed, leaving Canyons
In your cheekbones passing through you in the shadows, scenes undo you

[Chorus:]
Cut Your Ribbon
As it follows you
Everything, Everything
how can you sleep at night
As it falls apart
Anything, Anything
how can you sleep at night

Face it
Can you hear it?
Violation, You'll remember
It's all harmless
incidental, disengaging
these thoughts break you conscious, vicious
it has found you monovision, synapse fails you frequent syndrome
stings and burns through monovision, then dillutes you

[Chorus:]
Cut Your Ribbon
As it follows you
Everything, Everything
how can you sleep at night
As it falls apart
Anything, Anything
how can you sleep at night

As it follows you
Everything, Everything
how can you sleep at night
As it falls apart
Anything, Anything
how can you sleep at night

Can you escape these motives [x3]

[Chorus:]
Cut Your Ribbon
As it follows you
Everything, Everything
how can you sleep at night
As it falls apart
Anything, Anything
how can you sleep at night
