

Spine Shank, New Disease

Now I can take in, everything I know realize that I'm nothing I wanted to be, I can never change anything I've done because its the only thing I have left, blame myself again, for what I didnt do, never really knew it was coming for me to change the way I felt, the worst is yet to come, becuse I have gone too far now.

Nobody Nobody could change my mind and it leads me to a new disease, somebody somebody has bled and died, but it still becomes a new disease is this all worth what this has done to me watered down my senses and turned them on me fuck who i hate and everything i know if i didnt hate this then i couldnt go impersonate myself, for what i used to be denial is all thats left now

(chorus)

teething in my head , im suffering instead, i cant remember why this meant so much to me Go! did i ever want it, its all i coulda been, its all i woulda been

(chorus)
