

Spineshank, Stillborn

Stillborn!

I don't think you want to be the one to see inside yourself
I don't think you want to understand that it clouds up your mind
I don't think you want to undermine
I don't think you want the bottom line
I don't think you wanna see inside this God that you've created

(No) You don't even listen
You don't even hear me till I scream at you
(Now) I see your intention
A new intervention just to wear me down
(Breed) Selected division
You're on a collision course with your beliefs
(Find) A new evolution
Your full of solutions now that you're born again

Reborn
Like a mother fucking
Stillborn
All devoid of feeling
Reborn
Like a mother fucking
Stillborn
All devoid of feeling

I don't think you'll ever be the one to take the blame yourself
I don't think you'd even want to try to see through different eyes
I don't think you want to sacrifice
I don't think you want to fucking try
I don't think you wanna step outside this lie that's been imbedded

(Think) It's all a delvusion
Relieve your confusion when you put me down
(Fear) Afraid to accept it
You only defend it 'cause it's handed down
(Faith) It's all on the surface
It's only convenient when you follow through
(No) I'm not not gonna give in
You're already beaten when your born again

Reborn
Like a mother fucking
Stillborn
All devoid of feeling
Reborn
Like a mother fucking
Stillborn
All devoid of feeling

Stillborn!

It's time to make the cut
And let you bleed for yourself on your own
Of all the things I need
Is just for you to stop from judging me

Sick!
So get the fuck away from me
You make me
Sick!
So stay the fuck away from me
Away from me

Reborn
Like a mother fucking
Stillborn
Reborn
Like a mother fucking
Stillborn

Reborn
Like a mother fucking
Stillborn
All devoid of feeling
Reborn
Like a mother fucking
Stillborn
All devoid of feeling
