

Spirit Of The West, 6th Floor

At the corner of Elm and Northeast Houston
Staring up at the Southeast window

Someone circled allegedly
I refuse to pay six bucks to see People posing on the grassy knoll
How many was that just hime and Lincoln?
I was squinting through the sun, do they count the bottom floor as 'one'?

And I phoned home from the bottom of the building with the '6th floor'
You seem unimpressed at best that I phoned home
From the bottom of the building with the '6th floor' aah-ho

Suitable for family viewing, cracked a joke about who he was screwing
Stood in the centre of a concrete square
(Human nature took me there)

Debbie did Dallas yah, so did I Found myself taking pictures of a brown stone against a blue sky blue sky, oh-ho, oh-ho, oh-ho, oh-ho oh-ho,oh-ho

And I phoned home from the bottom of the building with the '6th floor'
You seem unimpressed at best that I phoned home
From the bottom of the building with the '6th floor'
And I phoned home from the bottom of the building with the '6th floor'
You seem unimpressed at best that I phoned home
From the bottom of the building with the '6th floor' aah-ho, oh-ho
oh-ho, oh-ho, oh-ho, oh-hoe
