

Spiritual Beggars, Look Back

No underhanded lies
Better look me in the eyes
Speak the truth if you are still my friend

Cause I won't be fooled
By any calculated tries
Better change your plan
Or take your final bow

Look back
I never look back

To make me stick around
You have to compromise
It's a give and take
You gotta share the crown
Cause I won't be hooked
By any mystifying lines
Watch me stand alone
Like I always have
