

Spirogyra, Nothing To Hide

Seeing as how Darkness has changed to bright
You've nothing to hide
Why don't you step into the light
No-one wants to deceive you or lead you
That's alright

You're rivals appear
The enemy is drawing near
And shadows of fear
Have brought out a rash on your ear
Seems they want your blood for their culture
Though it aint clear

Getta hold of the tow rope boy
You aint got an hour left to live Oh
Getta hold of yourself now boy
You aint got a reason to give for life

And me and John,
we thought we'd discovered a way to tear down the walls to hear all the people say
No-one wants to deceive you or lead you
That's OK, that's Ok, that's all

Getta hold of the tow rope boy
Getta hold of yourself now boy
You aint got a reason to give for life
That's alright, that's alright, that's alright
