

Spirogyra, World's Eyes

World's Eyes see for miles

Light

We are gonna help you

We are gonna help you

Each man is human, we all need each other

And walls burn eyes

Light

We are gonna help you

I'm not a person, my cells are exploding

I'm you, yearn, insane?

Go from this room

Leave right away

There's nothing here

There's nothing here to make you stay

It's not so sad

You'll find another

You'll find someone who needs a home

That you can share

You're very young

There's time to put away your cares

But don't forget

We were together

And through forever

I will know that you were there

You need to laugh

So go to where the light is clear

As for understanding

If there's such a thing existing

There's a sparkle in your eyes

I find it hard to put in words

And you take me to the depth of sorrow

Pleading for no more tomorrow

Hanging on the edge of moments

I can't bear to end

I'd have loved you if you'd seen beyond the time

You gotta know we're waiting here

You gotta know we're waiting here

You gotta know

All things will flow

As sure as water

As sure as silence

I will meet you once again

Nothing will change

There are no changes

There's only pages

Where the book remains the same

Give fortune time

And we will meet between these lines

As for understanding

If there's such a thing existing

There's a sparkle in your eyes

I find it hard to put in words

And you take me to the depth of sorrow

Pleading for no more tomorrow

Hanging on the edge of moments
I can't bear to end
I'd have loved you if you'd been beyond the line

You gotta know we're waiting here
You gotta know, You gotta know
You gotta know
