

Spitalfield, On The Floor

Just one last exploration,
let's hit the town and watch it fade.
Tonight is going nowhere.

Lift me off the concrete. Save me...

Please, put me back down on the floor
and run me right over.
Take this. Explain it.
Nothing seems to make sense anymore.
Anymore.

I am dying for a sign.
What's been running through your mind?
Don't just smile at me and act like it's okay.

Why can't we be never-ending?

Please, put me back down on the floor
and run me right over.
Take this. Explain it.
Nothing seems to make sense anymore.
Anymore.

Just tell me where it is you want to go.
And if I'm let down I won't let it show.
And if it's over why can't you say so?

Please, put me back down on the floor
and run me right over.
Take this. Explain it.
Nothing seems to make sense anymore.
Anymore.
