

Spleen United, Suburbia

The city really loves you baby but the city never really does the feeling of corruption stays and then you think about the things you've lost you've never really felt the fire and you've never really felt the need the city never stops you baby and you remember how it feels to fall apart you never really planned it baby but then the planning never really stops and when you think about the future baby then you dream about another start it's the thing about illusions baby it's the thing about the letting go but the city never saves you baby and you remember how it feels to go away to come back again

the tiger cage
suburbia

now everyone's an exit baby everyone's a back door out you're a member of another club now but you remember what you're coming from

Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch
Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch
Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch
Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch
Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch
Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch

Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch
Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch
Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch
Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch
Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch Love is just a buzz. Just a buzz you can't catch and it goes away but it comes back again

the tiger cage
suburbia
