

Splendid, Hate to love you

You run me over like train
Crash collide into my brain, yeah
You pick me up throw me down kick my heart into the ground, yeah
Growing like a bad infection
I don't know how to find the cure
I crash I burn I never learn
I'm getting a headache
I'm weak you're strong
So deeply wrong
You're my favourite mistake
I hate to love you
I'm being punished for my sins
This conviction never ends
I wave my flag when you attack
I just can't get you off my back
Going in the wrong direction
I don't know what I'm heading for
I crash I burn I never learn
I'm getting a headache
My life your way I can't escape
I'm sick of the heartache
I'm weak you're strong
So deeply wrong
You're my favourite mistake
I hate to love you
I'm so weak
Let me let you go
So weak
I hate to love you
I'm sick of the heartache
I crash I burn I never learn
I'm getting a headache
I'm weak you're strong
So deeply wrong
You're my favourite mistake
I hate to love you
