

Splendid, Hello dear

i get up brush my teeth take it easy watch some tv and i think about what i'm not going to say while i eat and you sleep in i make a wish and breathe in by the time i count to ten your awake and you look so, so fresh from the pillow and the blood hasn't reached your cheeks yet hello baby stay right here save this moment ever dear ever dear don't change for me i go with you come with me we drive into the city take the freeway to the beach and sit patiently how i try to be quiet i'm bursting with my love for you it i tell you will it change the day if you read my mind will it change anyway can i keep my face from giving it all away hello baby stay right here
