

Split Second, My Eyes

Writing away every night and i still cant say what i want your running away
farther today
maybe too far to turn
and i dont mind

chorus:
my eyes have been blinded with the fog of my tears but you sit lying heartless my lies have dug me to my worst fears and i hope it is alright

revealing my past
when i close my eyes
and it drags me down
so far down

falling down like walking a mile i should let myself sink, come down

chorus

run..run..im running away
..oh yeahh..
run away

chorus
