

Split Shift, Free

Your lack of thought
Divides your strength
To see the reality
Of the fire that burns so deep inside of me

Do you have a savior
You belong to me
I need to break these chains that bind
Can we all be freed

Forced under this wave
That you have made
To hold me idle threats
Are the tools that you use to enslave me

Advance yourself today
It seems I take your shit
And why cant I be free
I can be free
