Spock's Beard, The Gypsy

I fell in a stream Neck deep in needles A slow motion sunlit scene I woke in a world With two kinds of people The more and the less extreme Was it some kind of dream? Or is it real?

Then I awoke To then white policemen Who held me until I choked They brought me in Like McCarthy and Nixon That isn't all she wrote Log on to a suicide note

But I can't get nothin' That can be bought So I'll just live With what I got I'm the gypsy And I'll never be Anyone's president So I'll just live 'Til my time's spent I'm the gypsy I'm the gypsy

Little Susie Baker went to meet her maker For a ten pound note A glass and a sucker is all that it got her Guess she got her goat And the Camptown ladies say you have a nice day Just be along your way . . . GET OUT !!!!

CHORUS

I fell in a stream of lilac and razors What do you think that means? Another day - another stomach Aches for some other way But for now I'll just live today . . . OH YEAH ! ! ! ! !

But I can't get nothin' that can be bought So I'll just live with what I got I'm the gypsy - I'm the gypsy
