

Sponge, Giants

do you think she'll notice that i'm a wreck again do you think she noticed that i've lost a new pair of boots
how i felt in bed again i guess it's nothing new

'cause nobody's listening it's like giants falling
down

do you think i noticed that she came in late again
she's wearing a new perfume
how she wore her hair
today

she said it's nothing new
down
