

Spongecola, Gemini

come a little closer flicker in flight we'll have about an inch's space but im here i can breath in what you breath out let me know if im doing this right let me know if my grips to tight let me know if i could stay all of my life let me know if dreams can come true let me know if this one's your's too coz i see it

and i feel it right here and i feel you right here the vacuous night steps aside to give the meaning to gemini's dreaming the moon on its back and the seemingly veiled room's lit

by the same star.
