

Spook, Karma Hotel

ming xia

welcome
to the karma hooooooooo
welcome
to the

first verse

karma hotel lobby and i'm lookin' for enlightenment concierge where can i go to find adventure and excitement played of all the casinos bars and orgies they bore me here's another twenty now what you got for me he stared at me hard finally dipped in his drawer flipped the elevator keys and said go to the fourteenth floor so in a flash i was there cold knock on the door bombarded by cigar smoke the smell of hell and war and when the fog cleared the scene was like an eerie nightmare come in we've been waitin' on you for years you wanted adventure now you got it boy don't show me no tears this is the place where you face your desires and fears in each of his hands was a revolver forty five in the left twenty two in his right russian roulette's the game tonight and there's no escape so don't try to run but i'll fill your life with bliss if you're alive once the death wheel has spun choose your gun gimme the forty five i said with a smile here's a shiny silver bullet might as well go out in style put one in the cylinder spun it aimed at my dome and slowly clicked it now i feel the adreneheline rush that's got me so addicted motivatin' me to play a second time then a third time fourth time i clicked and popped boom money shot next morning cops found me needle stickin' out my arm peep the drama another sad story at the karma chorus ming xia

welcome to the karma hotel looks like heaven but could be hell where pleasant screams transform to yells and every suite casts its own spell

2x

second verse

peep the gamblin' scene gettin' dough as he rambled the fiends exotic queens dancin' with tamborines and the gambler's theme one eye open one eye scopin' watchin' his gat watchin' his back watchin' his stack watchin' his wrap watchin' his deck as people notice like oh shit nbsp boy just won a hundred grand where nbsp where nbsp nbsp oh my god at table seven did you see him yet look at his chips all that green growin' like chia pets two out the handle and he can't stop the more and more the fans flock the more the dice out his hands drop walk in the room he's bettin' and makin' money and every table women are sweatin' him like he was james bond or joe david yeah he's satisfied he's in his element now to do this for the rest of his life is how it's goin' down so it seems like he got his whole shit set but his son is gangbangin' in the park holdin' a rain check meanwhile somehow somethin' is kinda eerie about this place that he seems to be payin' a permanent visit to every face he sees expressionless like a mannequin he really wants to leave but stays cool to avoid panickin' he's gettin' the same attention but somethin' seems sorta different he's wrinkl'n up losin' weight and his body's startin' to stiffen now he notices years have passed in one night he made more cash than we could imagine but never lived life chorus

third verse ming xia amp

ming xia

since we're all trapped in peace guys see you later i'ma go to that red door near the elevator triple nines on nails danglin' off the door excuse me sir i didn't notice you before pleased to meet you macristo's the name pretty young thing come into my room i'd like to play a game it's called doom beat the friends and family gotta give yourself to me by the way what's your name

eve

check the scenery

ming xia

looks so happy at the same time the way they're entwined seems so good it's a crime believe in me as i believe in you live it up tonight

ming xia

well fuck it i feel i've got all of my life so true pleasure and pain transform lust to thrust one night stands of hot sex the bottle entrusts

ming xia

oooh invitation accepted too good to reject it so i join in unprotected expected one life to live don't respect it

ming xia

respect what ooh you poor child you've been neglected

ming xia

cristo why do i feel so cold it's like each time i climax you take a piece of my soul you could never leave you made a pact with the devil himself infected in my family of trust my daughter of lust

ming xia

so what you're tellin' me is i can't leave and i'm trapped here for eternity oooooooooooooooooooo
