

Spout, Threw My Angel Away

I've killed the one thing that I love.
I've massacred the part of her that gave her blood.
and I don't know if I can make it on my own.
the life worth living is the life that's dead and gone.

God will punish me someday.
For I have sinned against myself so many ways.
I try so hard to hear the angels as they pray.
The silence in the room leaves nothing more to say.

I Threw My Angel Away -
I Threw My Angel Away -
She gave me everything and still I walked away
and I stopped living the day you took my angel away.

Forgive me Mother, I know not what I've done.
I'm sorry I'm about to kill your only son.
cause I don't know if I can make it on my own.
the life worth living is the life that's dead and gone.

I Threw My Angel Away -
I Threw My Angel Away -
She gave me everything and still I walked away
and I stopped living the day I threw my angel away.
