

Spout, Wanted

Here I stand... all alone with no friends.... to call my own

As they desert me, I remain As people change, I stay the same and all i ever wanted was to be wanted

all i ever wanted was to be wanted
all I ever wanted was to be wanted

I need these words to be said
or i might I lose it again
Please tell me that I'm wanted
Please tell me that I'm wanted

Every day is the same day.
Every one is in my way.
Life's a riddle on repeat still you're no closer to me.

and all i ever wanted was to be wanted
all i ever wanted was to be wanted
all I ever wanted was to be wanted

or i might I lose it again
Please tell me that I'm wanted
Please tell me that I'm wanted

and now I wonder why Life's pleasures passed me by Stand up and take the fall
I never wanted this at all
