

Spring Heeled Jack, Pop Song

There was once was a boy.
Blue boy was his name.
He liked a girl named green.
She was totally insane.
One day blue and green were talking.
Blue said i was thinking bout making a device that could mimic u in every wayyyyyyyyyy
She said that would b nice.
But do u hear me when im thinking?
He said no but i wanna make a device that could do just that.
Take chess for example... the pieces symbolize it.
But o when blue and green well i cannot it.

Lets write a four chorus song
about u n me.
Send it a rock n roll station.
well call it pop song green.
and we'll build a house
by a stream where the water fall in two great pools
and we'll go swimming daily

say whoaoaoahaoa say whaoaoaoaoaoaoaooooooooooooo
i gotta have a little bit of everything.
to satisfy the minds of today yea.
its philosophy
keep but we'll do it our waayy

I like difference and i like change yea.
I like you when ur walking my way yea.
Sometimes colors theyre not what they seem
Last nite i had a purple dream.

Lets write a four chorus song
about u n me.
Send it a rock n roll station.
well call it pop song green.
and we'll build a house
by a stream where the water fall in two great pools
and we go swimming daily
