

Sponge, Break Up

Hey there's something I wanna share
I'll tell you even though you don't care
Think of all the good times
That you're gonna have
Don't dwell on the bad times
That just makes me mad
Well the sun is shining bright today
Less weight on your head cos you managed to get away
Now you've got your freedom
Now you've got your chance
Don't just sit around there
Get on your feet
Get off your ass

Why can't you just look ahead?
Stop dwelling on the things you think she said
I know you've gotta walk before you run
Don't just dreaming go on living

Come on bring it on

Hey there's something you need to know
You'll get there but things are moving kinda slow
Now it's time to try out
Things placed in the past
Don't just sit around there
Get on your feet
get off your ass

*chorus*

Well there's hope in your heart today
Living for yourself
Well you know it's never been this way
Now choose something good and

It's time to sing and dance
Don't just sit around there
Get on your feet
Get off your ass

*chorus*

come on, come on, come on

But please take my advice
Don't try and act too nice
Because you don't get chances to make mistakes twice
Hey there's one thing that's real clear
You're better off without her now you're here
Nice to have you back and having fun at last
Don't just sit around there
Get on your feet
Get off your ass

*chorus*

come on come on come one

*chorus*

come on, come on, come on big it up! big it up!
